

NOVEMBER 1, 2019

New Shareholders

NEWS & EVENTS: PRESS RELEASE

RELATED ATTORNEYS: ROSS BODEN, JAMIE BRACEWELL, LOREN ETTINGER, MEGHAN LEWIS, SHARON L. STOLTE, JAMES NEELD

Sandberg Phoenix shareholders have approved nine new shareholders, bringing the firm's total number of shareholders to 57. Effective November 1, 2019, attorneys Ross Boden, Jamie Bracewell, Loren Ettinger, Larry Hall, Meghan Lewis, Jason Salinardi, Sharon Stolte and Christi Swick will become income shareholders. Attorney James Neeld was voted in as an equity shareholder, also effective November 1, 2019.

CEO, Bhavik Patel, says, "We are excited to have these talented attorneys join our shareholder community."

Sandberg Phoenix continues to focus on growth, with a commitment to talent and diversity. The firm's total employment is currently 294 members, with 57% identifying as female and 7% identifying as diverse. Chief Human Resources and Operations Strategist, Mary Jennings, says, "Our affinity groups, including our Women's and Diversity committees, have placed an emphasis on recruiting, advancing and retaining talent from diverse backgrounds."