Bankruptcy

The Sandberg Phoenix bankruptcy and creditors' rights team, together with assistance from our corporate, commercial litigation, finance, regulatory, tax, and other specialties, provides clients with creative solutions to complex issues affecting distressed businesses or funds throughout the United States and abroad.

The team's wide experience, industry knowledge, and multiple skill sets are used effectively and efficiently to achieve our clients' goals in all aspects of creditors' rights, including bankruptcy, asset recoveries and foreclosures, restructurings and litigation. The efficiency in which our team provides these services allows for quality services to be performed at competitive rates.

Whether the representation is of a debtor, secured lender or lender group, an official committee of unsecured creditors or shareholders, a buyer of assets, or a plan sponsor, either in bankruptcy or out of court, the Sandberg Phoenix team provides excellent ideas, solutions, and results to our clients.
