Construction Litigation

Our lawyers have extensive experience handling a wide variety of construction litigation matters.

Our team identifies problems and finds solutions before, during and after the construction process. This proactive strategy often times results in saving precious time and keeping litigation costs down.

Our services include assistance with:

- Defective construction and design
- Mechanic's liens
- Personal injuries on the worksite or after completion
- Prevailing wage issues
- Surety and bond claims
- Warranty claims
- Women and minority business enterprise issues
- Wrongful termination
