

INDUSTRIES

Education

The education industry is faced with a variety of specialized legal needs.

We have broad experience in every important area of education law, including collective bargaining and labor relations, teacher tenure, student rights and responsibilities, open meetings and records, policy and governance development, student discrimination claims and general educational issues.