

MARCH 29, 2018

Powering Up!

NEWS & EVENTS: FIRM NEWS

PRACTICE GROUP: BUSINESS LITIGATION, BUSINESS

RELATED ATTORNEYS: A FULLER GLASER, JR., ANN BODEWES STEPHENS

The firm increased its horsepower this week, adding three outstanding business/transactional attorneys to its ranks. A. Fuller Glaser, former Managing Partner of St. Louis firm Herzog Crebs L.L.P., Ann B. Stephens, a former Herzog Crebs partner and James R. Keller, also a former Herzog Crebs partner, joined the Business practice group of the firm this week. Glaser's practice focuses on general business, business formation, estate planning for business clients, tax, probate and trust administration. Stephens has built a practice centered on business, corporate, contract, commercial real estate, estate planning, wills, trusts, M&A and probate work. Keller is recognized for his deep experience in construction law, litigation and appeals, and real estate law; he also has extensive mediation and alternative dispute resolution experience.

"This is another example of how this firm is committed to providing our clients with the best possible service," said Sandberg Phoenix Chairman and CEO Bhavik Patel. "We are constantly looking for opportunities to bring extremely skilled, client service-focused lawyers to our firm. Our clients expect that and we take every possible step to not only meet, but exceed their expectations."