

Keith Price

SHAREHOLDER IN ST. LOUIS, MO

Shareholder Keith Price provides merger and acquisition services involving stock, assets and real estate. His clients range in size from small start-ups to national corporations, and are representative of many diverse industries including real estate, non-profit and health care. Keith works seamlessly with executive leadership and in house counsel to help his clients achieve their goals and the best possible outcomes.

With considerable experience in corporate transactions, Keith has proven experience in:

- Letters of intent
- Due diligence
- Negotiations
- Definitive agreements

Keith frequently serves as outside general counsel to businesses, assisting with corporate formation and governance and contracts, including the preparation of supply, distribution, licensing, leasing and confidentiality agreements.

Keith goes beyond answering the legal questions asked of him to learn the root causes behind current issues facing his clients. By digging deeper and identifying areas for improvement, he provides solutions that address present needs while also preventing future potential issues from arising.

Keith serves as the chair of Sandberg Phoenix's Diversity and Inclusion Committee and has been integral in firm-wide diversity efforts.
