Asbestos Litigation

Our Asbestos team has expertly defended asbestos matters for a wide variety of clients in some of the nation's toughest venues including Madison County, St. Clair County, McLean County, and Cook County in Illinois and St. Louis City and Jackson County in Missouri as well as throughout the United States.

At Sandberg Phoenix, our valuable institutional knowledge allows us to instantly identify and respond to hidden issues and to efficiently and effectively achieve the best results for our clients when it comes to asbestos litigation. Our attorneys have decades of practice in asbestos defense as well as valuable trial experience and trial readiness. We have the legal and scientific knowledge to handle all aspects of a case from investigating exposures, to challenging plaintiffs' witnesses and experts, to simplifying complex legal and scientific issues for juries. Our asbestos team is dedicated to delivering exceptional service to our clients, while ensuring they have no surprises and are prepared and informed throughout the asbestos litigation process.

Our Sandberg Phoenix asbestos team has served as National Coordinating Counsel, Trial Counsel, Settlement Counsel, and Local Counsel for insurers and both large and small companies. We have represented manufacturers, distributors, retailers, installers, premises owners, heavy industry, Fortune 500 companies, and small family-owned businesses. We know that each client's story is unique and we focus on your needs. We develop customized strategies that work for the individual needs and goals of our clients. Our defense strategies are creative, efficient, and cost-effective.

Our team can deliver results. Because of our decades of experience and excellent reputation with plaintiff's counsel and within the asbestos litigation community, in many cases, we are ultimately able to obtain voluntary dismissals for our clients. In others, we obtain summary judgments or favorable settlements. When necessary, we are equipped to take an asbestos case all of the way to verdict. Along the way, we keep our asbestos clients apprised of all of their defense options and work together to build the best path to success.
