James Keaney

ATTORNEY IN ST. LOUIS, MO

Jim Keaney joined Sandberg Phoenix in 2021 and is a member of the Business Litigation practice group. He represents and counsels individual and corporate clients on a variety of complex labor and employment law issues in state and federal courts throughout the State of Missouri and State of Illinois. Jim's practice has primarily included individual and class-or collective-based wage and hour litigation under federal and state laws, workplace discrimination and retaliation litigation, employment contract consulting and litigation, restrictive covenant consulting and litigation, professional licensing defense and appellate work.

Prior to joining the firm, Jim worked at a local boutique employment law firm for several years. During law school, Jim served as a judicial extern for the Honorable Judge Richard Teitelman at the Missouri Supreme Court. During this time, Jim also interned at Legal Services of Eastern Missouri in the Volunteer Lawyering Program and worked at a small, highly regarded St. Louis firm focused on representing individual and corporate clients in a variety of complex civil and criminal matters.

Outside of the office, Jim enjoys traveling, reading, spending time with his wife, and rooting on the Ohio State Buckeyes in all sports.
