Zachary joined Sandberg Phoenix in 2022 as a Health Law practice group member. As a St. Louis native, Zach's passion for trial work began in high school by participating in the Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis's Mock Trial Program. After graduating from the University of Mississippi's law school, Zach combined his passion for trial work with his desire to help others by focusing on health law in medical malpractice, long-term care and senior living cases.

Zach passionately defends doctors, hospitals, nurses and others who have dedicated their lives to helping others. Zach brings his clients the advantage of his years of experience, the strategy to know how to win and the ability to execute the plan.

His commitment to the legal industry extends outside of the office. Zach helps coach the Mock Trial team of his alma mater, Kirkwood High School.

When not practicing law, Zach enjoys exploring the St. Louis' bars and restaurants, reading, and entertaining his two dogs, Cannoli and Scotty.

SUCSESSES

Obtained summary judgment on both compensatory and punitive damages against a client, a psychiatrist charged with negligence in failing to order a 14-year-old child to be admitted to the hospital following an emergency room evaluation the night before her death by suicide.
