Corporate Transactions

Our attorneys have broad experience in various corporate transactions representing purchasers and sellers, investors, joint ventures, private equity and capital funds and institutional lenders.

With our depth of experience, skills, resources, focus and expertise in various business sectors, we are uniquely suited to advise clients in mergers, strategic alliances, joint ventures, outsourcings, restructurings and contracts.

Our firm handles the full range of transactions business owners and investors may encounter, from the purchase of a company's first equipment or a short-term strategic alliance to multi-faceted stock and asset sales, capital investment arrangements and corporate reorganizations.
