

Elizabeth Moeller

SHAREHOLDER IN KANSAS CITY, MO

Elizabeth joined Sandberg Phoenix in 2022 and is a member of the Health Law practice group. Prior to joining Sandberg Phoenix, Elizabeth practiced at a Kansas City-based firm. Her practice emphasizes the defense of litigation involving professional liability claims, including medical malpractice defense, nursing home and long-term care defense, dental malpractice defense, allied health care provider defense and other complex civil litigation matters.

Elizabeth was born in Kansas City, Missouri, attended Pembroke Hill School, and earned her law degree from the University of Missouri - Columbia School of Law. While at Mizzou, she also completed her Master of Health Administration. During law school, Elizabeth served as a Note & Comment Editor for the Journal of Environmental and Sustainability Law and as the President of the Women's Law Association. She also interned at Texas Children's Hospital and with the Office of the Federal Public Defender in Jefferson City, Missouri.

Outside of the office, Elizabeth enjoys spending time with her husband and friends, cooking and hiking. After running cross country in high school and college, running remains a lifelong hobby.
