

INDUSTRIES

Banking & Finance

Banks and financial institutions have very specialized needs, along with the same general needs of all businesses.

By representing numerous financial institutions, we are involved in most aspects of financial institution law and operations on a regular basis. This permits us to give our clients prompt, efficient, authoritative and economical services.

The services we provide include:

- Banking operations consultation
- Bankruptcy
- Contracts
- Litigation
- Loan negotiation and documentation
- Problem loans and workout
- Product development including forms and compliance procedures and non-traditional banking activities
- Regulatory compliance consulting