Jamie Bracewell

SHAREHOLDER IN EDWARDSVILLE, IL

With more than 16 years as an attorney, Jamie joined the Sandberg Phoenix Health Law practice group in the St. Louis office in January 2013 to continue serving medical professionals, specifically prosecuting and defending medical malpractice and nursing home negligence claims.

Jamie believes that issue identification and the ability to explain such issues to clients is critical to achieving a favorable result in each case. Translating these issues into arguments and presenting them in court is where Jamie truly excels.

Outside of her career, Jamie enjoys spending time with her husband and their two children. She and her husband can be found going to the theater and sampling the cuisine of new restaurants. Jamie and her husband are also active in their church and regularly volunteer in the community.
