Sandberg Phoenix Kansas City Welcomes Sharon Stolte

NEWS & EVENTS: FIRM NEWS

PRACTICE GROUP: BUSINESS LITIGATION, BUSINESS

RELATED ATTORNEYS: JOHN SANDBERG, SHARON L. STOLTE

Bringing more than 25 years in bankruptcy, business law and business and commercial litigation experience, Sharon Stolte adds considerable depth to the legal services Sandberg Phoenix provides to clients in Western Missouri and Kansas.

Sandberg Phoenix is pleased to welcome Sharon Stolte as new Counsel in the firm's growing Kansas City office. A highly experienced counselor and litigator, Sharon's wealth of experience supporting clients provides Sandberg Phoenix the opportunity to provide even more value to its clients.

In addition to her legal work focusing on bankruptcy, Chapter 11 debtor and creditor issues, as well as Chapter 7 and Chapter 13 consumer debtor matters, Sharon has represented creditors in all aspects of creditor rights litigation, claim objection litigation, collateral realization, mechanic liens, collections, foreclosures and replevin litigation. Sharon has also assisted financial institutions, lenders and large suppliers with consumer and commercial restructuring of troubled credits and other business matters. Representing clients before both state and federal courts, she has served as national counsel for several Kansas City-based construction industry firms.

"Sharon is a tremendous attorney," said Sandberg Phoenix Managing Partner John Sandberg, "And her experience, knowledge and guidance will be invaluable to our clients in both Kansas City and St. Louis. We're very proud to have her join our team."

In addition to her legal practice, Sharon is a very active member of the Kansas City community, serving as President of the Kansas Premier Soccer League and as Vice President of the Heartland Soccer Association, as well as overseeing the management of six soccer teams. She is also involved in her congregation and has served as the Chairperson of the Hope Lutheran Board of Education. Sharon lives in greater Kansas City with her husband, former professional soccer player Tommy Howell, and their three children.

Sharon joins a team of more than 100 attorneys in seven offices throughout the Midwest whose broad depth of knowledge and close attention to detail ensure that all clients receive extraordinary client service, backed by a unique service guarantee.

"While Sandberg Phoenix proved a great fit for my legal practice, what really sets the firm apart is the collegial feel and collaborative approach to client service, and I am happy to be working together with some very skilled attorneys throughout the Midwest," Sharon said.

Beginning June 1, Sharon's office will be located at Sandberg Phoenix's new space at 4600 Madison Avenue, conveniently located in the Country Club Plaza neighborhood in Kansas City.
