Sandberg Phoenix Welcomes Christi Swick

NEWS & EVENTS: FIRM NEWS

PRACTICE GROUP: BUSINESS

The Sandberg Phoenix Labor and Employment group welcomes Counsel Christi Swick, a litigator with 15 years of experience in a broad range of labor issues. Christi, a graduate of the Saint Louis University School of Law, has experience in representing clients in matters before state and federal courts, proceedings heard by state departments of labor and has been involved in collective bargaining negotiations. In her years of practice, Christi has counseled clients ranging from start-ups to large public school districts. Christi will be based on the firm's St. Louis office.
