

OCTOBER 13, 2017

Thomas Hill Joins Sandberg Phoenix

NEWS & EVENTS: FIRM NEWS

PRACTICE GROUP: BUSINESS

RELATED ATTORNEYS: THOMAS HILL

Tom Hill, a southwest Illinois attorney with more than 35 years of practice, has joined the firm's Business practice group. Coming to the firm from his solo practice in Highland, Illinois, Tom has significant experience in estate planning, real estate, business entity formation. A native of southwest Illinois, Tom is a former president of the 500-lawyer Madison County Bar Association (MCBA) and a past president of the Tri-City Bar Association.

"I'm extremely pleased to join Sandberg Phoenix," Tom says. "I believe the firm's client-first philosophy matches my own perfectly. This is a great move for me and for my clients. The technical resources and the broad range of legal 'horsepower' Sandberg Phoenix offers are top-notch in this region."

A graduate of the John Marshall School of Law, Tom worked as an engineer with Illinois Bell troubleshooting transmission systems prior to graduating law school.

Along with professional activities and raising his family, Tom has been active in church and community affairs, including past president of the Highland Chamber of Commerce and Highland Rotary Club; former Chairman of the Board of St. Joseph's Hospital, Highland; past chairman of St. Paul Kirchenfest, and numerous other civil and religious organizations.