

Timothy Sansone

SHAREHOLDER IN CLAYTON, MO

Tim joined Sandberg Phoenix in 2002, leads the firm's Appellate and Complex Litigation Team, and is Chair of Professional Development. In addition, he has served as chair of the firm's Paralegal Group.

Focusing on complex litigation involving product liability claims, business disputes, appellate practice, correctional medicine, and class actions, Tim frequently consults with trial attorneys in the courtroom and colleagues at the firm who regularly look to him for fresh, creative ideas when faced with unusual circumstances involving a lot of moving parts. He and his Appellate Team frequently assist in protecting the record and preserving any judicial errors for appeal. He works with the firm's Correctional Medicine Team handling cases in district and appellate courts. As a member of the firm's Insurance Team, Tim serves as coverage counsel primarily for insurance companies. He also works with the firm's Class Action Team to advance our clients' interests in what often become "bet the company" cases.

Emphasizing proactive case management that is smart, practical and efficient, Tim treats the client's interests, goals and satisfaction as paramount.
