Warren Davis

COUNSEL IN ST. LOUIS, MO

Warren Davis is a member of the firm's Business and Business Litigation practice groups. He was elected by shareholders as the firm's first Managing Partner. Prior to joining Sandberg Phoenix, Warren served as a founding shareholder of Davis, Davis, Kasnetz & Greenberg.

Warren concentrates his corporate merger and acquisition practice in the representation of successful privately held business entities primarily with revenues in excess of $25 million. He assists his clients in acquiring, divesting and equity financing activity with a recent merger transaction having a $1 billion value. Warren provides his clients with more than 30 years expertise in tax and business succession counseling. Warren has been selected by his peers as a Best Lawyer for merger and acquisition representation in the Best Lawyers of America publication. He has been previously recognized as a Missouri Super Lawyer in the same specialty.

He is often asked to and does serve as outside general counsel for his clients.

Warren also represents several community banks in a wide array of legal and business matters.

In addition to his corporate practice, Warren continues an active business litigation practice. Having tried more than 50 cases to verdict, Warren is an experienced courtroom attorney who focuses his litigation practice on shareholder disputes involving privately held businesses.
